POLICE AWAIT THE LUSITANIA

Scotland Yard Cables to American Detectives to Search Incoming Steamships

WANT BELLE ELMORE'S HUSBAND

Dr. Crippin, Suspected Murderer of Former American Vaudeville Actress, Believed to Have Sailed for America on this Ship Last Saturday-Belle Elmore was a Brooklyn Cirl-Suspect Probably Lound to which owned the ill-fated badoon. Philadelphia, where He Once Lived.

Dr. Crippen Practiced in New York.

At the request of Scotland Yard, the police here tonight were awaiting, the Lustianis, which was not expected to dock, however, until tomorrow morn-

FRIENDS OF THE DOCTOR.

Believe He Will Attempt to Reach

Philadelphia, Where He Once Lived.

interesting sidelights on Dr. Crippen's Philadelphia career.

They Often Quarreled.

'He never struck her or anything of the kind, but I believe that if he thought he had any excuse for his jealousy his rage could not be govern-ed. He and his wife went around con-stantly togather and apparently they were happy. In 1899 he came to me and said that he was going to New York and then to England.

"I think that it was about two years

-303,000 Spectators.

ELKS AT DETROIT.

NATIONAL REUNION OF

London July 14.—The Scotland Yard little girl, growing up with American-officers today cabled a request to the born stepbrothers and stepsisters, American police to search incoming dropped her christened name and be-American police to search incoming dropped her christened name and besteamships for Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen, alias Peter Crippen, alias Franckel Crippen, who is wanted in connection with the murder of his wife, felle Elmore, an American vaudeville actress. He is believed to have sailed for New York last Saturday, It was reported later today, however, that Crippen had been seen in Kingsway in the west central part of this city this morning.

American police to search incoming dropped her christened name and became known as Cora Marsinger. Her stepfather, Mrs. Mills, the stepsister to whom the "Louise and Robert" letter was addressed, and other relatives, were found today in Brooklyn and Queens. Her mother is dead.

Marsinger, the stepfather, is a farmer and huckster. He said today: "We noticed that, although Dr. Crippen's letter told of a dying relative with was to leave him money, the letter did not give the relative's name.

VICTIM WAS A BROOKLYN GIRL. ter did not give the relative's name, his place of residence, his business, Suspected Murderer Was Insanely Jealeus of His Wife.

New York, July 14—Belle Ellmore

Inspected fire residence, his business, nor did it tell where Cora was taken fill, where she died, who attended her, or why, if she was fill in this country, she did not communicate with her family as would have been natural.

New York, July 14—Belle Elmore was a Brooklyn girl. The first news of her death was received by Mrs. R. H. Mills, a stepsister, now living in East Williamsburg Queens borough in a letter dated April 7. No. 39 Hill Drop. Crescent. North London, England, and signed by Dr. Crippen. Dr. Crippen Writes to His Wife's Family. The police regard the date as im portant, because although it carried the first word from Dr. Crippen to his wife's family of her death, it is nearly two months later than the death notice published in London papers. The letter follows: The letter follows:

My Deur Louise and Robert: I hardly know how to write you my dreadful loss. The shock to me has been so dreadful that I am hardly able control myself. My poor Cora is nore dreadful I did not even see her more dreading f did not even see her nt the last.

"A few weeks ago we had news that an old relative of mine in California was dying, and to secure important property for ourselves it was necessary for one of us to go and put the matter in a lawyer's hands at once.

"As I was very busy Cora proposed that she should go and as it was necessary for someone to be there at once sair for someone to be three at once, she would go straight through from, here to California, without stopping at all and then return via Brooklyn, and she would be able to pay all of you a

The visit.

The visit of the way out my poor form engight a screec cold and not having, while traveling, a chance to take carry of herself, it settled on her lungs later to develop into pieuro-passimonia.

The wished not to frighten me, so kept writing not to worry about her, that it was only a slight matter and next I heard by cable that she was dangerously ill, and after I embled to know should I go to her I had the dangerously III, and after I cabled to know should I go to her I insi the dreadful news that she had passed away. Imagine, If you can, the dreadfil shock to me, never more to see my Core alive nor hear her voice, again. She is heing taken back to me and I shall soon have what is left of her. Of course, I am giving up the house in fact, it drives me mad to be in it alone. I will sell out everything in a few days. I do not know what I shall do, probably find some business to take me traveling for a few months.

to take me traveling for a few months until I can recover from the shock a little but as soon as I have a settled address again I will write again to to write this dreadful, dreadful news, will you nlease tell all the others?

"With love to all. Will write soon scaln and give you my address, probably next in France. From Doctor."

Although the mystery of Belie El-more's disappearance did not come offiresulted today in the discovery by the Brooklyn police of the dead woman's According to the information of the Brooklyn detective bureau. Belle Elmore was born Kunigunde Makomarksis of noble Polish descent. When she was two rears old, her widowed mother married M. F. Marsinger, and the

INTERNAL REVENUE RULING OF INTEREST TO DRUGGISTS A Body Blow Delivered by Commis- | Parade of 20,000 Members of the Order

the country which receive their intox- of today's programme of the national heating stimulants in the guise of perfumes, essences medicines or drugs were delivered a body blow today by Commissionar Cabelle of the internal revenue bureau, who gave out a list of more than two hundred preparations which hereafter may be handled by drug stores only after the government liquor license is paid.

Trensury department officials said they believed that many of these preparations were concocted mainly for saie in 'dry territory' where the prohibition laws made it impossible to obtain legally anything with a liquor. The ladies of Cincinnati won the author of the control of the c

Cabled Paragraphs

Honolulu, July 14.—The French cruiser Montealm, which will visit ports on the Pacific coast, arrived yes-terday from the orient. The Montealm will remain eight days sind then sail London, July 14.—The engagement was announced today of Miss Claire Frewen, daughter of Woreton Frewen, the economist and author, and Brinsley Sheridan, son of Algernon Thomas Brinsley Sheridan. Miss Frewen's mother was born in New York, the daughter of Leonard Jerome.

Leichlingen. Rhetrish Prussia, July 14.—The bodies of Jscar Erbsloeh, the balloonist, and hiss four companions, who were killed when their dirigble craft was wrecked by an explosion, will be buried together, and the place of interment will se marked by a monument cracted by the airship company

OFATUARY.

George W. Hazen. George W. Hazen.
On Wednesday morning the death of George W. Hazen, formerly of this city, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. All & Hazen Chaire, at Roxbury, Mass. He had been sick for two weeks. Mr. Hazen was born in Norwich 78 years and 8 months ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hazen. He lived here for a number of years, but has for a long time been located in Boston at No. 1 City Hall avenue. The father of the deceased owned the old residence where the garage of the A. esidence where the garage of the A. Swan company now stands, and the eccased lived there after his father died. He was a watchmaker by trade. His wife died a number of years ago. He is survived by one daughter. whose some he died, two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Cook of Mohegan and Mrs. Samuel Crane of Norwich, and one brother, Hiram G. Hazen of Califor-showed fondness for the stage. We did not approve at first, but she was headstrong and we let her have her way. On one of her tours through the west she met Dr. Crippen—I don't know just where—and they were many ried about fourteen years ago, as nearly as I can recollect. We did not see much of Cora after that. She was a handsome girl and very clever.

Dr. Crippen Practiced in New York. pr. Crippen is said to have practiced medicine with success in both Brooklyn and Manhattan. He always appeared to have plenty of money and his wife wore handsome jewelry. One of the stepsisters visited the Crippens in London within a year and found them living comfortably there, still with plenty of money. There were no indications then of any unhappiness in the family.

the Otrobando road. He had not been in good health for some time. He had been employed as overseer in mills during his active life, but about eight years ago retired. Mrs. Levitsky died a number of years ago. He was a mative of Germany, but has lived in this country for many years.

He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Fred Karkutt and Mrs. William Karkutt of this city, Mrs. Fred Dombroski of Preston, and Mrs. Rudolph Eckert of Hartford and one son, Fre, erick Levitsky of this city. He leaves 38 grandchildren and seven greatchildren. woman whose body was found yester-day, and it was in this city that he had the most lucrative practice of his career. Duke Munyon, son of Profes-sor Munyon, today threw a number of He said; "Dr. Crippen came to us in 1894 and received a position from my father. He came originally from New York, I think, and he was a most careful and efficient physician. He New York, I think, and he was a most careful and efficient physician. He was only a little fellow, weighing about 100 pounds. He worked for us for five years.

"There was only one thing to disturb the even tenor of his life. That was his wife, Beile Elmore. He was intensely jealous of her, and they often quarreled. She was pretty and attractive and she had lots of men friends.

FUNERALS.

Charles McKirnin At two o'clock on Thursday after-noon the funeral of Charles McKirnin was held from his late home. No. 88 High street, there being a number of relatives and friends in attendance, several being present from Monson and Pawtucket. The services were conducted by Rev. Edward S. Worcester, paster of Broadway Congregation-al church. There was a number of floral forms. The bearers were friends and burial was in Maplewood cemetery where a committal service was read Church & Allen had charge of the arrangements.

Harry J. DeBarros.

On Thursday morning the funeral of Harry Joseph DeBarros was held from his late home, No. 81 Mechanic street and at St. Patrick's church a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Hugh Treanor. There were several floral forms. The bearers were Ira Simonds, Ernest Charles, Alfred Parkhurst and Howard Wilson. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Donnelly-Drescher

Thursday evening at 6 o'clock t. Mary's parish rectory Charles St. Mary's parish rectory Charles S. Donnelly and Miss Katherine Drescher, reunion of Elks was a parade of 20,000 both of this city, were united in mar-riage by Rev. James J. Smith. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Katherine Bray as bridesmaid and Henry Drescher, the bride's brother, as best man.

The bride was charming in a gown overcome by the heat and give a second to the proper production which hereafter may be handled? We man, was charming in a goom from the heat and give as man, was charming in a goom from the proper product of the proper product of the proper product of the produ

Strike Order Not Yet Given

NO AGREEMENT REACHED AT YESTERDAY'S CONFERENCE.

COMMITTEE OF SIX

Appointed in Whom Has Been Vested the Power to Order a Walkout of Pennsylvania Road Trainmen.

Philadelphia, July 14.—Whether a strike of the 15,000 conductors, train-men, baggagemasters and yard men employed on the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburg, Erie and Buffalo shall be called is now in the hands of shall be called is now in the hands of a committee of six, headed by President A. B. Garretson of the Order of Railway Conductors, and W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. The conferences today between the committee of railroad men and General Manager W. Heyward Myers of the Pennsylvania arilroad resulted in no agreement, and so far as can be learned neither side conceded anything to the other.

Matter Left in Hands of Committee of

When the final conference was over the committee representing the rail-road men filed out of the Pennsylvania road men filed our of the Pennsylvania offices with serious faces. None had anything to say and the Pennsylvania officials also declined to talk.

The railroad men later held a brief meeting, and at its conclusion President Garretson announced that the 120 members of the general committee who had been given power through the strike ballot to order a walkout, had unanimously voted to leave the matter in the hands of a committee of six. was here the ballot to order a walkout, had unanimously voted to leave the matter in the hands of a committee of six. Except that President Garretson and President Lee are mmebers of this committee, its makeup was not announced. It was further explained that the committee of six has the power to fix the fiter an illness of some time. She had heen there about a year, her health having been failing during and previous to that time. Mrs. Peckham was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, her father having been a stone-cutter who resided in West Main street for many years. She married Restoome Peckham, who conducted a store in the street, and whose a store in the failed to Observe the matter and the supply him with a sleeping couch and food. The consul reported that no definite action regarding Pittman has been determined by the de facto authorities and that he, Olivarez, will be except that President Lee are mmebers of this committee, its makeup was not announced. It was further explained that this committee of six has the power to fix the time the men shall quit work. Just when a strike order might be expected Mr. Garretson refused to say.

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS

IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

Failed to Observe the matter with a sleeping couch and food. The consul reported that no definite action regarding Pittman has been determined by the de facto authorities and that he, Olivarez, will be except the men shall quit work. Just when a strike order might be expected Mr. Garretson refused to say.

GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS

IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

Failed to Observe the matter, with a sleeping couch and food. The consul reported that no definite action regarding Pittman has been determined by the de facto authorities and that he, Olivarez will be except every effort to insure fairness and humane treatment for Pittman. When the United States originally dearned of Pittman that he prisoner would be treated fairly and consider assured of Pittman that he prisoner would be treated fairly and consider assured of Pittman that he prisone

Water street, and whose death occurred a number of years ago.

She i ssurvived by two nieces, Mrs. Peckham and Mrs. Arling of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Mary J. McNeely.

The death of Miss Mary J. McNeely occurred at her home in Versailles on Thursday, after an illneas of some time. Miss McNeely was born in Ireland, the daughter of William and Mary McNeely. Most of her life has been spent in this country, and she bas been a resident of Versailles practically all that time. She was a woman of fine characteristics and held in high esteem.

She is survived by one brother, William McNeely of Boswell avenue, and one sister, Mrs. Fanny Craik of Versailles weather's will on February 2, 1890.

Williams was ordered by the court to return the property, but the petitioner is like to the children, as provided in the elder Stark-weather's will on February 2, 1890.

Williams was ordered by the court to return the property, but the petitioner is like to the property out the petitioner is like to the most of the most of the most of the property and the property out the petitioner is like to the most of the property of the most of the most of the property of the most of the most of the property of the most of the most of the property of the most of the most of the most of the most of the property of the most of the most of the most of the probate court is sued to supreme court here to day for failing to obey a decree of the probate court is sued ten years ago. The petitioner is Joseph U. Stark-weather, a well-known business man of this oity. He alleges that Williams, acting as executor under the will of his mother distributed the estate left her by his father, James O. Starkweather, among her relatives weather's will on February 2, 1890. one sister, Mrs. Fanny Craik of Versailles.

Carl Levitsky.

On Thursday afternoon the death of Carl Levitsky occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Karkutt of the Carl Levitsky occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Karkutt of the Carl Levitsky occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Karkutt of the Carl Levitsky occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Karkutt of the Carl Levitsky occurred at the home of household property, within sixty days.

Charles D. Watson Nominated Gavernor-The Platform.

St. Albans, Vt., July 14.—Unity of sentiment pervalled among the dele-gates to the democratic state conven-tion, which met in this city today, nom-inated Charles D. Watson of St. Albans inated Charles D. Watson of St. Albans for overnor and a full state ticket and adopted a platform largely devoted to national affairs.

The platform denounces the new tar-adopted a piation.

The platform denounces the new tariff law and demands a downward revision of the tariff, urges legislation to prevent "that despotism on the part of the speaker of the louse known as Cannonism." condmens the federal Cannonism, condmens the federal corporation tax law and favors the income tax and reciprocity with all countries, particularly Canada. On state issues the platform praises the Vermont high license liquor law and urgest taxistion reform. urges taxation reform.

land Military Rifle Association. Wakefield, Mass., July 14.—Massa-chusetts led in both the interstate match and the all-America event to-night at the close of the fourth day's shooting of the New England Military Rifle association. It was the first day's shooting in these two events. All the cards were turned in for the 600, 200 and 1,000 yard ranges tonight, and the contest will close tomorrow with the 200 yards' rapid fire and skirmish matches. The medal for the highest officer's aggregate was won by Lieut. M. Williams of the United States navy, who had a score of 191 who had a score of 191.

Dulsburg, Rhenish Prussia, July 14.

Herr Strack, the aviator, during a light with a monoplane today, fell flight with a monoplane today, fell from a height of 100 feet. The ma-chine was wrecked but Strack escaped with slight injuries

Embezziement.

Washington, July 14.—Assistant Paymaster Lawrence G. Haughey of India, attached to the Castine of the Atlantic topredo fleet, was dismissed

William Pittman Starving in Jail

DEPENDS FOR SUBSISTENCE EN-TIRELY UPON CHARITY.

FOUND IN FILTHY CILL

by the Madriz Government Forces Near Bluefields, Nicaragua.

Washington, July 1.—O pfined in a filthy cell, six by five a unfed save by charitable strangers, liam Pittinan, the American cap ed by the Madriz government force near Biue-Madriz government force near Binefields, was found in an vercrowded local prison at Managua Nicaragua, by Consul Olivarez yesterday. The consul, who is stationed at that point, telegraphed the state department today that he visited Pittman, discovcred the revolting conditions and through protests forced Dr. Madriz to furnish the adventurous American better prison accommodations.

Relatives in Massachusetts.

Pittman, whose relatives live at Cambridge Mass, told Consul Olivarez that he left Greytown, July 4, and that since then his captors had failed to provide him with food, leaving him altogether dependent for subsistence upon charity.

Pittman was starving. Olivarez immediately protested, reminding Madriz of his promise to treat Pittman with consideration. Madriz finally agreed to transfer Pittman to a larger and cleaner cell and to allow the consul to Beverly, Mass. July 14.—President Taft will have his first view of the Atlantic battleship fleet as commander in chief of the armed forces of the United States on Aug. 5 off Province-town, Mass. Pifteen warships will be assembled there and the president will review them from the bridge of the yacht Mayflower.

yacht Mayflower.

Mr. Taft is going to Provincetown to deliver an address at the dedication of the Pilgrim monument, the cornerstone of which was laid two years ago by Theodore Roosevelt. The battleships will be assembled in honor of the occasion. There will be a land parade of sailors and marines and probably several regiments of soldiers.

HARTFORD LEADS ALL THE REST Increase in Postal Receipts in Fifty

Washington. July 14.—The postal receipts at fifty of the largest post-offices of the United States during June showed an increase of 9.57 per cent, over the same month of last year. The receipts of June, 1909, were 12.58 per cent, greater than in June, 1908. The total receipts at these fifty largest offices last month amounted to $8,686,189, compared with $7.919.511. amounted to $8,686,189, compared with $7,919,841 during the same month in 1909, an increase of $76,-

INDIAN LAND FRAUDS, Conference with Senator Gore Over the Situation.

Pierre S. D., July 14.—Congressman Burke, chairman of the congressional committee selected to investigate the charges of Indian land frauds in the Indian territory, went to Mankato, Minn., today, where Senator Gore of Oklahoma is appearing on the Chautauqua circuit, for a conference with the Oklahoma senator, who made the charges which brought about the investigation vestigation. Senator Gore shows a disinclination to meet with the committee in Okia-homa, but wants to wait until congress convenes in December for his appear-ance before the committee, and the trip of Congressman Burke to Mankato is for the purpose of a conference over the situation.

MISAPPLIED BANK'S FUNDS. Ernest W. Bowman Gets Ten Years in the Western Penitentiary.

Pittsburg, July 14.—Ernest W. How-man, former assistant cashier of the Citizens' National bank of Tionesta, was sentenced to serve ten years in the Western penitentiary by Judgo James S. Young in the United States district court today. In May 150%. Bowman pleaded guilty of misapplying the bank's funds and making falsentries for nearly two years previous Immediate commitment was ordered.

fied Italian woman was struck and instantly killed at the East Haven tunnel late today. The woman stepped from in front of one train directly in front of a second train on another track

Condensed Telegrams

Postmaster General Hitchcock salled rom New York for Europe.

William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is being appointed assistant to the president of the Vanderbilt railroads.

off Provincetown. Mass., has been floated.

The Interstate Commerce Commission ordered a supervision of the recen advances in freight rates made by th

Howard Oswald, who was injured in the Big Four wreck at Hamilton, O., is dead, making the twenty-third victin of the accident

The Naval Yacht Hornet, bought the government at the outbreak of the Spanish-Américan war for $117,500 was sold for $5,100. Mrs. Antoinette Skora of New York pact, the latter falling to end his life because the revolver missed fire. There Was a Marked Falling Off in the consumption of liquors in Gre Britain, according to the report Consul General Griffith, at London, Premier Katsura of Japan denied that the Russo-Japanese convention was influenced by Secretary Knox's proposition for neutralization of the

Theodore Roosevelt says he hopes the Jeffries-Johnson fight will be the last in the United States and that the exhibition of moving pictures of the contest will be stopped

WILBUR GLENN VOLIVA GETS CONTROL OF ZION CITY And Its Industries by a Federal Court Order.

Chicago, July 14.—Wilbur Glenn Vo-liva, overseer of Zion city, Ill., protege and lare supplanter of the late John and late supplanter of the late John Alexander Dowie, was placed in a position today eventurily to get absolute control of Zion City and its industries by a federal court order. Judbe K M. Lancis accepted the bid of a Chicago real estate firm for the assets of the Dowie estate. Guy D. Thomas, receiver of the estate, was ordered to dispose of it to the realty firm for $760,000. Under a previous contract the realty firm will transfer the estate to Voliva for $960,000 at the time the contract was drawn up. He time the contract was drawn up. He will be allowed eight years to pay the $850,000.

PORT JEFFERSON OUT. The Government Abolishes the Customs Service There.

Washington, July 14.-Arthur N Randall, for many years surveyor of customs at Port Jefferson, N. Y. after many efforts to resign, has been relieved of duty, but the only way in which this could be accomplished was to abolish the post.

Port Jewerson, once important i be customs service, became com-bletely overshadowed by New York ity, and the business dwholled untithe customs service. pletely the post of surveyor became very un-attractive. Then Mr. Randall of fered his resignation. The treasur-department iried but was smalle of find some one to take the place. Mr.

Stockbridge. Mess. July 14.—One day's run in the Berkshires cost Harry G. Tobey, a broker, of No. 26 Broad street, New York, who lives in New Rochelle. $5,000. They had a new automobile and with his wife and son Allen he started on Tuesday for the White mountains, arriving at night at the Red Lion inn.

About midnisht, Pryor Van Horn, Tobey's chauffeur, speeding with the new car on the Stockbridge road, droye it into an iron bridge over the new car on the Stockbridge road drove it into an iron bridge over the Housatonic river with such force that the tonneau was torn to bits and the chauffeur's party tossed into the river. The chassis was ruined. Mr. and Mrs. Tobey returned to New Rochelle yes-terday. The broker refused to progeterday. cute his chauffeur.

MRS. STORY REMARRIED.

Widow of American Author Becomes Wife of New York Banker,

London, July 14.—Mrs. Marie Hunt Story, widow of F. Marion Story, and A. Murrsy Young, a New York bank-er, were married at St. George's church, Hanover square, today. The bride was given away by M Reid, the American ambassador. The nuprilais were solemnized by Rt. Rev. Brent, Protestant Episcopal bishop of the Philippines, who was assisted by Rector Anderson of St. George's, A luncheon for the wedding party was given at Dorchester house, the home of Ambassador and Mrs. Reid.

ONE YEAR FOR NAVY PUGILIST Champion Boxer Convicted at Hamp ton of Prize Fighting.

Hampton, Va., July 14.—William Durandt who claims the heavyweight pugillatic championship of the United States havy was convicted here today y a jury in the circuit court of prize fighting. He was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Durand was knocked out several weeks ago at Buck Roe beach by a ngaro named Scarborough, in the first round of what was to have been a ten-round contest. Durand formerly lived in Pennsylva-

ONCE HAD BIG FORTUNE. Death of Sigafus, a Famous Miner, in San Bernardino Desert.

Staatsburg machinist. The court remarked that absence makes the heart grow fonder," and he filed an order which cancels the separation after six months, believing the couple will become reunited. It is believed to be the first case of its kind in the state.

New Haven Italian Woman Killed by Train.

San Bernardino, Call. July 11.—

San Bernardino, Call. July 11.—

James Monroe Sigafus, who at one time counted his fortune by the millions, has died at the Virginia Dale withing camp on the San Bernardino desert from the intense heat. Sigafus made and lost several fortunes. His biggest stake was made at Leadville, Col. He was a partner with Tabor and others in the Robert E. Lee mine.

New Britain, Conn., July 15.—Fire early today destroyed a Barn and its contents and burned to death three morses owned by James W. Haggerty. A biplane which was in course of building was also burned. The loss Steamship Arrivals. At Havre: July 13, La Provence from New York.

At Gibraltar: July 13, America, from

Well Dressed Young Man

The Gunboat Castine, rammed by the SMOKED A CIGARETTE, THEN LEAPED TO DEATH.

EAST RIVER BRIDGE SUICIDE

Unknown Jumped from Cap of Pier of Williamsburg Bridge 205 Feet Above the Foundations.

New York, July 14.—Two extraordinary suicides marked the night in the environs of New York.

An unknown man about 25 years old, and well dressed, sauntered across the Williamsburg bridge across the East river, sat down on a bench in the center span to read the racing chart in an evening paper, offered a chart in an evening paper, offered a cignrette to a neighbor, smoked one himself with seeming enjoyment, and then began rapidly to climb the iron latticework of one of the plers.

Body Did Not Clear the Roadway. Before his chance acquaintance could run to call a policemen the stranger had mounted to the cap of the pier, 205 feet above the foundations, and leaped off. His body did not clear the roadway, which is 125 feet above the water, and he was picked up lifeless.

Another Unknown Jumped from Hudson Boulevard in North Bergen. Another unknown man climbed onto the stone parapet of the Hudson boule-ward in North Bergen, N. J., tonight and leaped to the rocks 220 feet below, His corpse was found with almost ev-

THREE BANDITS

RAID CONSTRUCTION CAMP It Was Payday-Railroad Laborers Opened Fire on Robbers.

Cleveland, O., July 14 .- One man dying, two wounded and a possibility of other casualties is the result of a re-volver battle tonight between three volver hattle tonight between three bandits and forty members of a construction gang on the Lake Shore railroad at North Olmstead, twenty miles west of here. It was pay day at the construction camp, a fact of which the bandits were apparently aware. Near midnight, when the railroad men were in their bunks, the robbers made their appearance.

appearance. The men from the bunks, aroused to leveled revolvers, were handing their pay envelopes to the robbers, when companions on the outside opened fire. In a moment the shooting had become general.

A telephone message to Cleveland apprised the authorities of the affair, and Sheriff Hirstius with a posse of detectives started for the scene in au-

SHOT HIS YOUNG WIFE DEAD

AND COMMITTED SUICIDE. Mrs Young Had Left Her Husband a Week Ago.

Geneva, O., July 14.—After firing four bolicts with fatal effect into the body of his young wife, who had run away from him, Shelby Young, a Chicago elevated railroad conductor, committed suicide on the scene of his crime near here today.

Mrs. Young left her home in Chiago last Saturday and came to Un onville, south of here, where her fa-ther has a farm. She complained that her husband made her miserable from Young reached Geneva this morning. He followed his wife to a farm where she had gone to pay a visit and asked her to return home. She refused and to Strike. Montreal, July 14.—The result of the strike vote taken by the conductors and trainmen on the Central Vermont, a subsidiary line of the Grand Trunk railroad, was announced tonight. result is that 98 per cent, of the men have voted to strike if they do not receive the full eastern association wag-scheduls. The demand was refused by General Manager Jones and had been left to be settled with the demands of the Grand Trunk men. STATE POLICEMAN LOUKS DISMISSED FROM THE FORCE. Reason for His Involuntary Retirement

RESULT OF STRIKE VOTE ON CENTRAL VERMONT ROAD.

Not Given Out. Hartford, Conn., July 14.—It was an ounced today that at a meeting of the state police commission beld capitol on July 6th that State Police-man Merrill Louks had been dismissed from the force. The reason for his involuntary retirement was not given

250 GUESTS PRESENT. Marriage of Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., and Miss Mildred Dick. Garrison, N. Y., July 14.—Stuyvesant Fish, Jr., and Miss Mildred Dick were married here today in the Little Church of St. Stephen's, where the Fish family has worshipped for generations.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evans Dick of Philadelphia and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish of New York. Sidney Webster Fish was his brother's best man. A special train brought 250 guests from New York, among whom were many persons well known in New York and Philadelphia society.

MAY BE GREAT GERMAN STRIKE Shippard Workers Demand More Wages and 53-Hour Week,

Hamburg, July 14-Thirty-five thousand shippard workers united today in a demand upon their employers for an increase of ten per cent. in wages and a fifty-three-hour week. They threaten to strike in the event the concessions are refused. The workmen are engaged in the shippards at Hamburg, Bramen, Vegesack, Bremerhaven, Flensburg, Kiel, Lubec, Rostock and Stettin.

Eccentric Millionaire Left Two Conflicting Wills. Kingston, N. Y. July 14.—The fact that Dr. Charles H. Roberts, an eccentric millionaire of Oakes, Unister county, left two conflicting wills, will probably mean the expenditure of $75,000 in Higation. County Treasurer Cook's appraisal fixes the value of the settle at $1.178.722. To date $45,000 has been paid for Higation, $5,00 is allowed for the accounting, and $25.000 is estimated as the expense of future. is estimated as the expense of future